A nine-month old dispute between the Management and the Workers of the concern known as the Amco Factory at Bangalore was settled by the Hon. Minister for Labour, Sri K. T. Bhashyam Iyengar, yesterday. The dispute arose from the closure of four Sections of the concern by the Management from 1st May 1950. The Labour Department's efforts to see that the played-off workers were recalled and back wages were paid by the Management not having yielded satisfactory results, the Hon. Minister met the representatives of both sides more than once and effected a compromise yesterday and an agreement was executed between the parties. The workers accepted, for the full period in question, only 5 months' salaries or wages plus Dearness Allowance, of which one month's payment has already been made. Two months' dues will be paid within a week and the balance in not more than two monthly instalments in addition to the payment due for the next two months. The workers promised to return to works immediately but a week's margin was allowed in the case of those who for any reason might not be able to join forthwith. The Management assured the workers that there will be no victimization and the workers reciprocated by promising full production. The Agreement will not in any way prejudice either the Management's contribution to the Employees' Provident Fund accounts or the implementation of the Award passed by the Court of Arbitration in March last.

The best agreement possible in the circumstances having thus been reached, and the workers also having resumed work this morning, it is hoped that substantial improvement will result not only in the relations between the Management and the workers but also in production which is the paramount need of the hour.

No Change in the Existing System of Meter reading.

The attention of Government is drawn to an article in a local newspaper, dated 4th December 1950, stating that inconveniences are being experienced by Government servants for payment of lighting charges during the last week of every month and it has been suggested that some arrangements should be made by which the dates of payment in respect of installations of Government servants fall during the first week of the month so that they may arrange to pay the bills when they are in a position to do so.

In this connection, Government desire to inform the public that the system of meter reading in Bangalore City and Civil Area is a system of daily meter reading from the 1st to 25th of every month. Two days are allowed for preparation of the bill and thereafter 15 days' time for the consumer to pay the bill. So, the due dates of payment of bills fall between the 18th of each month to about 11th or 12th of the subsequent month. The difficulty referred to is only in respect of certain consumers whose due dates fall between the 18th and the end of the month, and therefore the inconvenience referred to is not a question of general disability.

At this stage, it would be necessary to indicate how meter readings are arranged to be taken. The meter readings have been so arranged as to enable the Meter Inspector to visit one or two streets every morning and take the meter reading on a particular date. Thus it will be seen that the taking of readings and making out bills for power consumed is localitywar. If Government servants are to be given the concession referred to, the localitywar meter readings will have to be completely upset and Meter Inspectors will have to go from place to place. The number of Meter Inspectors required for accomplishing this will have to be increased sufficiently to make up for the loss of time in moving from one meter to the other which may be far apart. Further it is also a well-known fact that people change their houses very frequently, and if the meter of a particular Government servant has to be read on a particular date, it will have to be kept changing whenever such alterations of residences take place. The inconvenience and confusion that will be caused by such a change needs no mention. Therefore, it would be clear that the present practice of reading the meters localitywar is the most convenient and economical one; and hence it has been adopted and has been working satisfactorily. Further, the consumers, if they so choose, may pay the bills in advance, thus eliminating the difficulty referred to.

Under the circumstances it is hereby notified for the general information of the public that no change in the existing system of meter reading or the sending of bills or the due dates of payment is called for.

A Brief Note on the Work of Animal Husbandry Department for the Fortnight ended 31st January 1951.

Prevalence of Rinderpest among cattle, sheep and goats was reported from Heggaddevankote, Kadur, Davangere, Holalkere and Honnali Taluks during the fortnight. Altogether 11 outbreaks have been registered during this period and out of 46 cattle and 385 sheep and goats that were affected, 25 cattle and 364 sheep and goats died of the disease. The staff of the Department have protected 3,466 cattle and 1,117 sheep and goats in the infected villages and 1,118 cattle and 386 sheep and goats in six neighbouring villages during the period. The disease appears to be flaring up again as a result of holding the cattle fairs which are providing opportunities for the infection to disseminate and unless some restraint is enforced in the matter of holding these fairs at this juncture, there is every indication of the disease spreading rapidly throughout the State. Nevertheless, preventive measures are continued to be undertaken by the Staff of the Department.

The Committees constituted by Government at the instance of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research to determine the breed characteristics of Hallikar and Amrit Mahal cattle met at Hessarghatta Travellers' Bungalow on 28th January 1951 under the Presidentship of the Director of Animal Husbandry Services in Mysore. This opportunity was availed of to take the members of the Committees round the Hessarghatta Grass and Stud Farm, where they were acquainted with the various activities of this Department on the Farm and the details of the Composite Scheme the implementation of which is under consideration of Government.

A meeting of the Aided Cattle Breeders in the State was also held at Hessarghatta on 29th January 1951 to discuss measures for extending the scheme and to eliminate the present shortcomings. The Director of Animal Husbandry Services in Mysore, Sriyuts A. Bheemappa Naik, B.A., LL.B., M.L.A., and Sri B. Huche Gowda, M.L.A., were also present at the meeting on special invitation and offered their suggestions in drawing up revised proposals for continuing the Aided Cattle Breeders Scheme in the State.

The aided cattle breeders and others who attended the meeting were also taken round the Hessarghatta Grass and Stud Farm where they were acquainted with the activities of the Farm.

110 cows were bred at the two Artificial Insemination Centres in Bangalore and Mysore.

Tractor demonstrations were given by Messrs. Fergusson Tractors Co, Ltd., at Hessarghatta and at the Cattle Breeding Station, Ajjampur during the fortnight.

Press Note.

There have been instances in which persons who wish to apply for Passports or other travel documents, do so just a few days before their intended departure from this country The preparation of a Passport and other travel documents takes a good deal of time as it has to be preceded by certain enquiries. The delay caused by these enquiries is inevitable, and it is quite likely that the applicants may not be able to get their passports, etc., in time. They are, therefore, advised to apply in the prescribed forms through the District Magistrates of Districts in which they ordinarily reside at least two months before their intended date of departure from this country. In urgent cases, however, a period of at least 3 weeks is absolutely necessary. If the applications are not made in the manner indicated above, it will not be possible for Government to guarantee the issue of passports in time.
